

School Principal Vacancy Announcement

“Leadership is the capacity to translate vision into reality.”

(W.G. Bennis)

Chiswick House School and St. Martin’s College (CHSMC) is looking for a visionary leader who is able to inspire our students, young people, staff and teachers to realise dreams and high expectations. Our belief is that all children can realise their full potential within a well-ordered and challenging educational setting. Over the past decades we have worked tirelessly to develop the best environment to capture our students’ imaginations and see them transform into educated human beings who value competence, diversity, spiritual and aesthetic dimensions and life in its fullness.

Our next principal will be a creative and committed visionary who is able to:

- Lead with a sense of great purpose, promise and strong values;
- Shape and articulate sustainable goals at a macro and micro level;
- Be sensitive and pro-active towards risks and opportunities;
- Balance stakeholders’ expectations;
- Be courageous in directing strategic intent through collaboration;
- Deliver high standards of educational practice and attainment;
- Demonstrate outstanding organisational skills to devise and co-construct systemic structures;
- Abide by the principles of good governance;
- Identify curricular opportunities that are impactful, efficient and cost-effective;
- Work with teams to create an inviting and safe climate where educational opportunities for all learners and all staff members translate into well-rounded aspects of success;
- Cultivate a culture of leadership across all levels and lead by example;
- Lead with a growth mindset, enthusiastic engagement and determination;
- Innovate using communication skills and optimal use of data and resources;
- Be attentive to the funding opportunities available to CHSMC;
- Re-imagine and re-invent CHSMC’s offering to respond in a timely manner to evolving challenges and opportunities.

The role offers an exciting opportunity for members of the educational community who feel they have the drive, ability and passion to lead one of Malta’s leading schools. Supported by strong leadership teams, a professional Faculty and competent administrative and support staff, with dedicated parents and a most vibrant and energizing pupil/student population, the school is ready for the right candidate who will be able to capture the spirit of the dynamic school community and lead it into the years ahead.

An attractive salary package is available for the right candidate.

If you feel you have what it takes to capture and nurture the dreams and aspirations of our school community do send in your application. Send your CV including two references (one character reference and the other covering professional experience) and a motivational letter to the specially-designated email vacancynewprincipalCHSMC@SMC.edu.mt

All CVs will be treated in strict confidence and extra care will be made to ensure the confidentiality of the process.
