

ST MARTIN'S COLLEGE

Role: Maltese Teacher

Full-time

Chiswick House School and St Martin's College are professional learning communities committed to 21st-century learning. We are currently looking for Educators who are motivated to be the best Educators they can be, inspired by learning on the job and takes their own initiative to bring new elements to learning.

We are currently inviting qualified educators and inspiring teachers in the below-mentioned area to send their applications:

Maltese Teacher

The ideal candidate should be:

- knowledgeable of the syllabus related to the subjects to be taught;
- determined and motivated to work in a team-led environment;
- a believer in lifelong learning and endorse a growth mindset;
- forward thinking and open to new ideas and strategies of learning;
- accepting to diversity within and outside the classroom;
- committed to the learners and their needs;
- computer literate and embraces technology in the classroom.

Main duties and responsibilities for the role:

- design and implement lessons that achieve specific academic and holistic learning outcomes;
- co-construct and update schemes of work that would be followed for that academic year;
- be responsible for the learners' academic and socio-emotional well-being;
- assess learners and document their achievements to reach their best potential;
- participate in weekly meetings to discuss learners' and one's own progress at school.

To fulfil this role, candidates are required to:

- be proficient in the Maltese and/or English Language;
- be in possession of a recognised qualification at MQF level 7 or a recognised comparable qualification in the subject/area applied for; and

- be in possession of a recognised qualification at MQF level 6 or a recognised comparable qualification in the subject/area applied for; or
- be in possession of a recognised qualification at MQF level 6 but not in the subject/area applied for, on condition to being in possession of an Advanced Matriculation Level at MQF level 4 (minimum Grade E) in the subject/area applied for;
- have a valid and clean Police Conduct Certificate / background check (POMA);
- have good references.

If you are an educator willing to make changes and want to become a member of our growing family, please send your resume and application letter together with the references to recruitment@smc.edu.mt by no later than 13th January 2023.